

Magdalene, Woman of Light

LYRIC SHEET

AWAKE CHILDREN OF LIGHT

Lyrics by Susan Griffin & Michele Wagner

Music by Kama Devi

MOTHER WISDOM

Awake, oh children of the light
Remember who you are
Let me tell you
The unadulterated story
Of the Garden of Eden
And the garden within

You are my creation in one with the divine
Our love put in you, connection sublime
It was just created so simple, so simple
From the mother and the father
Came the daughter and the son

Come my children, wake up, come home to Mama
The world is turning and yearning
For hearts to be free

Fear and superstition are a dangerous condition
Separating you from all that you are
Blind beliefs and dogma imprison the mind
Keeping you from knowing the truth deep inside

Awake, oh children of the light
Remember who you are
Come hear the story
From the One who tells it true
Of the union of man
And woman in you

Competing and comparing is a game with no end
Round and round you go in a spiral of need
The way you can be free of this affliction and addiction
Is giving up your hunger for power and greed

Magdalene, Woman of Light

Drink up my darlings
Drink up my light
Your body is the temple
Your spirit is the light
Your body has wisdom
Your spirit has grace
Living in love
Is your natural place

Awake, oh children of the light
Remember who you are
Come let me tell you
Awake oh children to the light
Of the love inside

GOSPEL CHORUS

Ahs
Ahs
Tell us mama, mama

Awake, to the light
