

Magdalene, Woman of Light

LYRIC SHEET

PETER'S LAMENT

Lyrics by Susan Griffin & Michele Wagner

Music by Kama Devi

PETER

You found me, chose me, named me, loved me
Then you left me here alone
You gave me hope and showed the way
You opened my heart then went away

Is there really life after death
Is there mercy after betrayal
Do I have to walk alone
Who am I without you
Who are you without me, let me see
Can I be all I need for me

You told us clearly, love one another
But who is loving me now
Life goes on and I realize
If I do not stand on my own feet
I will never become whole and complete
I must find the rock that lives in me
Is that what you tried to say to me

Let there be life after death
Let there be mercy granted
I have never been alone
You have always been here
I am you, you are me, we are one
I can be all I need for me

Let there be light in me
I can see it shining
I choose to be the love I AM
Fill my cup, I AM THAT I AM

GOSPEL CHORUS

Let there be light in me

Magdalene, Woman of Light
