RIVER DESTINY

Lyrics by Susan Griffin & Michele Wagner
Music by Kama Devi

MAGDALENE

I long to find my sacred path
Where shall I seek the answer
When will it all be clear
Who is this vision
The one who calls out my name

Where is my life taking me
All I see is this big unknown
Yet, I feel it in the marrow of my bone
In the stillness that I have known
But I'm afraid

Where is my life taking me
Beyond the shadow of my doubt
Shines the light of his love
And the look in his eyes
Soothes my weary bones
And leads me to places
Unexpected and unknown
Will my destiny please unfold

What would happen if I just let go
Push past all the things I know
Heed the call, let the river flow
To my destiny I belong
Take me home

Where is my life taking me
Beyond the shadow of my doubt
Shines the light of his love
And the look in his eyes
Soothes my weary bones
And leads me to places
Unexpected and unknown
River destiny please unfold

Magdalene, Woman of Light

Why do I keep holding on
To people and things that are not mine
Why do I cling, hope and dream
When my life is in the middle of the stream
Take me home

Beyond the shadow of my doubt
Shines the light of his love
And the look in his eyes
Soothes my weary bones
And leads me to places
River destiny take me home
River destiny take me home
