

Magdalene, Woman of Light

LYRIC SHEET

THE TEACHER

Lyrics by Susan Griffin & Michele Wagner
Music by Kama Devi

JESUS

Some are blind, though they claim to see
Don't be one of those, come and listen
Listen to me

The standards you've known
And all that you own
The limits you perceived
Stood by and believed
Are not really real
They're just make-believe

And what you call home
Is so far from the truth
Hear if you can
Of a much greater plan
Your heart is your home
You're never alone

PETER

More
There's more
There's more that you're not telling us
There's more
There's more

JESUS

Peter
Eat, of the food that's right for you
Nurtures you
Satisfies too
The hunger in you

Magdalene, Woman of Light

And all that you own
The limits you perceived
Stood by and believed

Surrender your fear
All the things you hold dear
Soon will be changed
Only truth will remain
It lives in your heart
And not in your brain

PETER/APOSTLES

More
There's more
There's more that you're not telling us
There's more
There's more

Pete
You are the light you follow
Lives in you
Shines on through
It's inside of you

PETER/APOSTLES

More
There's more
There's more that you're not telling us
There's more
There's more
